Press Release

IndusInd Bank integrates Employees' Provident Fund Organisation (EPFO), enabling seamless Provident Fund payments for its customers

- The integration enables employers and establishments to make Provident Fund (PF) contributions seamlessly through the EPFO portal using IndusInd Bank's Corporate Internet Banking and Indie for Business (MSME) digital banking platforms.

Mumbai, July 13, 2026: IndusInd Bank, today, announced that it has successfully integrated with the Employees' Provident Fund Organisation (EPFO), under the Ministry of Labour & Employment, Government of India, making EPF contributions simpler and seamless.

The integration enables organisations to select IndusInd Bank directly on the EPFO portal and complete their Provident Fund contributions seamlessly, using IndusInd Bank's Corporate Internet Banking and Mobile Banking applications - Indus Direct and INDIE for Business (MSME). This move brings one of the country's widely used statutory payments onto the Bank's digital rails.

In addition, IndusInd Bank customers can remit EPFO contributions directly through the EPFO portal in a secure, and efficient manner. The solution delivers a convenient payment experience while helping organisations meet their statutory obligations with ease.

The integration marks an important milestone in IndusInd Bank's growth journey, further strengthening its position as a trusted banking partner for businesses and institutions.
